We are excited for you to join us in Grand Rapids, Michigan for the 2015 HDWA Annual Conference held on October 13-15, 2015. In addition to enjoying our beautiful state during peak foliage season, you will have the opportunity to learn from nationally-recognized experts, network with other change leaders, and walk away with tools and techniques that you can implement in your community the very next day.

Cost to attend is $550. The conference is open to students at all levels. Students may apply for a scholarship to cover the price of admission to the conference.

Eligibility

- Be active member of HDWA (free to join)
- Enrolled in 6 credits for current semester

Requirements

- 250-500 word essay describing your future career plans and how the conference will help you
- Letter of recommendation from a professor at your university
- Proof of enrollment

Please direct any questions and the scholarship submission materials to Leslie Kian, Education Council Chair via email at lkian@mdanderson.org by August 31, 2015 for consideration.
